

iCEO Investors on Demand™

What is it?

iCEO Investors on Demand™ is a multi-country and multi-industry platform dedicated to the recruitment of C-level executives offering personal investment capabilities.

This unique value-added service allows companies to address 2 major issues especially when implementing a strategic shift: reinforce management with new skills and inject fresh funds. This is an incredible leverage for companies who do get a talented and committed executive on board with a limited impact on their P&L.

Why is it different?

Over the last 10 years, our unique approach of executive recruitment iCEO Management on Demand™ has largely proven that there is room for a customized and time-efficient matching service without the weight or the cost of heavy structures and processes; this 'out of the box' methodology is now being extended to iCEO Investors on Demand™.

Positioned at the heart of traditional executive search solutions, Business Angels introduction services and sophisticated fundraising processes, iCEO Investors on Demand™ is a specialized solution that offers a customized and professional assistance throughout both the recruitment and the investment structuring processes.
